

Atomic Explosion Brings Star Into Sight

This picture, made at the Yerkes Observatory, Williams Bay, Wis., shows the star "T Coronae Borealis" which has been made brighter by an explosion of hydrogen gas, described as an atomic explosion millions of times more powerful than the bombs which hit Japan. Dr. Otto Struve, director of the observatory, said Armin J. Deutsch, student assistant who noticed brightness of the star, at first thought he had discovered a new one. Spectrum in lower part of picture shows broad band produced by hydrogen atoms indicating velocity of explosion of about 3000 miles per second.

LONG DELAYS IN REMOVING PRICE
CONTROLS SEEN

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—The house appropriations committee today told congress there will be long delays in lifting many of OPA's price controls.

It made public, in approving a deficiency appropriation bill for OPA, this revised summary and time-table submitted by OPA Boss Chester Bowles:

RENTS—Instead of dropping controls in 60 areas by the first of this year as planned earlier, OPA moved out of only 30 small areas, meanwhile adding 17 to its original list.

FOOD—Suspension of controls on milk, cream, ice cream and manufactured dairy products not likely until the spring of 1947; a few varieties of fish may be de-controlled by May, 1946; no suspension of controls on processed fruits and vegetables likely until after Jan. 1, 1947; controls on major meat items probably will be retained until July, 1947.

Controls on most of these items were scheduled to have been lifted around April 1, 1946.

CONSUMER GOODS—No suspension of textile or apparel items appears probable for the spring of 1947. Earlier, OPA had told the committee it hoped to give serious consideration to removal of these controls by April 1, 1946.

SERVICES—Removal of controls on laundering, dry cleaning and similar services, originally scheduled for late spring of this year, now definitely postponed. Control of restaurants, expected to continue "at least until autumn" instead of being removed early this year.

Wants Action On Bonus

COLUMBUS, Feb. 12.—State Representative Howard Metzgerbaum of Cleveland has informed Gov. Frank J. Lausche he would refer to the governor a large number of petitions Thursday asking for a special session of the legislature to approve a bonus for World War II veterans.

Regarding a special session, the governor has indicated he would make some specific statement within a few days.

Bill To Hit Tax Evaders

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—A $1,604,556,940 Treasury-Postoffice supply bill containing funds for a crack-down on tax evaders and postal racketeers won house appropriations committee approval today.

Sent to the house floor for debate starting tomorrow, it finances

Prosecution Ends
Trial Testimony

LISBON, Feb. 12.—State's attorneys rested their case against Mrs. Olive May Long, 23, of Wells-ville, early today after three final witnesses had testified in the trial of the serviceman's wife charged with the first degree murder of her 16-month-old baby daughter in Wellsville last September.

The defense, expecting to call eight witnesses, opened its case after three motions, one to delete police officials' testimony from the record, another to exclude the time of the murder, and a third for a directed verdict of acquittal, were all over-ruled by Judge Joel H. Sharp.

The court heard Mrs. Marie Moore, an acquaintance of Mrs. Long's, tell of hearing the defendant say, "Oh, hell! I might as well go home. I can't have any fun with this brat!" as she walked out of a tavern in Wellsville a few days before the baby's drowning in the Ohio river.

This statement was confirmed by Mrs. Dessie Montgomery, also of Wellsville, who was with the witness when she overheard Mrs. Long talking with some friends.

Mrs. Long's mother, Mrs. Hazel James, of Wellsville, testified for the state earlier this morning.

Held To Grand Jury

LISBON, Feb. 12.—Kurt B. Boenker, 21, of Youngstown, arrested here last evening in connection with the theft of a car owned by L. S. Finestone, entered a plea of not guilty when arraigned before Mayor G. C. Rauch on a charge of operating a motor vehicle without the owner's consent, and was bound over to the grand jury under $2,000 bond.

World's Biggest Metropolis
Is Silent, Stricken City

(By Associated Press)
NEW YORK, Feb. 12.—This world's greatest metropolis was a silent, stricken city today.

Wartime restrictions at their worst never imposed such austerities as Mayor William O'Dwyer's fuel-saving proclamation closing all places except those most vitally concerned with public safety and health because of the tugboat strike.

The city's 8,000,000 inhabitants—many forbidden to work—still were a little stunned and bewildered.

They were told to stay off subways. They could not see a movie, go to other amusements centers, or even drink a friendly glass of beer in a bar.

The underground trembling of subways, the overhead roar of the El, the hoot, squeal and clatter of traffic were sharply reduced.

Only a few trucks rumbled along streets in the city's great industrial, wholesale and retail centers.

Giant, towering skyscrapers were empty and silent save for the occasional footsteps of maintenance men.

operations of the Treasury and Postoffice departments for the fiscal year starting next July 1.

The actual cash provided is $29,660,250 below budget estimates and represents only about 10 per cent of the total funds handled by the two agencies.

Permanent and indefinite annual appropriations, including $1,570,000,000 for tax refunds and $5,000,000,000 for interest on the national debt, run the actual total to over $11,000,000,000. While congress does not appropriate for these purposes each year, the appropriations committee reviews and reports on the expenditures annually.

Earmarked For Probes
A large part of the Treasury's fund was earmarked to finance a drive against what the committee called "black market operators and others who war-squander incomes" on which they haven't paid proper taxes.

Secretary of the Treasury Fred M. Vinson told the committee there is "growing evidence of widespread tax evasion" and asked for funds to recruit 5,000 additional workers, largely war veterans, to handle the situation.

W. C. O'Brien, a Postoffice department attorney, told the committee the mails are being flooded with ideas to make money off veterans or their relatives. One, he said, was a "hero book" supposed to contain names of war heroes.

The department disclosed that it intends to modernize and improve facilities by purchasing a fleet of 5,000 new trucks and installing self-stamping and stamp-selling machines in post offices throughout the nation.

Alliance Seeks Answer
To Housing Situation

ALLIANCE, Feb. 12.—Residents planning to build new homes in this area have been requested to meet at Mayor Wade Shidler's office Wednesday and Thursday from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m.

Mayor Shidler said the registration was decided upon to help the housing committee to determine the actual number of new homes needed here. The committee, appointed by the mayor, is attempting to formulate plans for a housing program here this spring.

Lisbon Civic Groups
Approve Stadium Plans

LISBON, Feb. 12.—Plans for the erection of a $50,000 Memorial athletic stadium here were approved last night at a meeting representing 20 civic organizations in the High school building.

Rev. Theodore Cord, vice president of the Boosters club, presided at the meeting. Complete plans of the new edifice were discussed and the issuance of a $50,000 bond approved.

A committee, including George Gonzales, Graham Kearney, Mayor G. C. Rauch, Miss Sadie Van Fossen and Mrs. Raymond Wilhelm, was appointed to conduct a campaign favoring passage of the bond issue.

The measure will be considered by Lisbon voters on March 19.

ARCHBISHOPS
REACH ROME

Prelates Mooney, Stritch, First Cardinal Designates To Arrive

(By Associated Press)
ROME, Feb. 12.—Archbishops Edward Mooney of Detroit and Samuel A. Stritch of Chicago arrived in Rome by plane at 12:40 p. m. Greenwich mean time (7:40 a. m. Eastern Standard time) today.

The two archbishops were the first of four American cardinal-designates to reach the Eternal City for the consistory Feb. 18 when they will receive their red hats.

A large group of American clergy from the Vatican greeted the two prelates, who were students together at the North American college here 39 years ago.

Both expressed joy at reaching the "goal of our journey" in their first aerial voyage and said the trip from Paris was in sunny weather. They expect to receive an audience with Pope Pius XII before the consistory.

SHANNON, Eire, Feb. 12.—The Constellation plane Star of Rome, bearing Archbishop Francis J. Spellman of New York, Archbishop John Joseph Glennon of St. Louis and Bishop Thomas Tien of Tsingtao, China, to the Rome consistory landed at the Rineanna airport here today.

The four-engine TWA plane came down at 10:44 a. m. (5:44 a. m. Eastern Standard time) after a trans-Atlantic flight from Gander, Newfoundland. A party of Roman Catholic clergy, prominent laymen and correspondents had landed here 75 hours and 32 minutes earlier in the C-54 Colossus.

Four American prelates, Archbishops Spellman, Glennon, Edward Mooney of Detroit and Samuel A. Stritch of Chicago, and to be elevated to the College of Cardinals in Rome.

Wants 'Junk Heaps'
Taken Off Highways

CLEVELAND, Feb. 12.—Almost half of Cleveland's 250,000 automobiles are a safety menace, Traffic Commissioner Martin A. Biecke estimated today.

"Many of this unit half are literally junk heaps which should be forced off the streets and highways," Biecke said as he mapped plans to combat the city's current wave of traffic fatalities.

"If we don't take immediate steps to get these junks off the road, we are in for one of the greatest traffic tolls this year in our history," he asserted.

Biecke strongly urged enactment of legislation for compulsory vehicle inspection.

"I hope we can work out a plan like the one used in Cincinnati and get the city council to pass it," he declared.

He emphasized, however, that 17 of the 21 persons killed in traffic this year were pedestrians.

Junior High PTA Hears
Training Subject Debate

The Junior High school Parent-Teacher association met last evening at the school building, when the High school debate team presented arguments on the subject of "Compulsory Military Training." An open discussion followed.

Walter Regal was elected vice president, to replace Mrs. George McKee, who retired recently.

The Junior High school choir, under the direction of Miss Doris Tetlow, sang several selections. Refreshments were served by a committee in charge of Mrs. Henry Hurlbut.

The next meeting will be held March 11.

FIGHT SEEN ON
HOUSE CEILINGS

Price Controls On Present
Homes Stricken From Measure

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—Despite the pleas of Housing Boss Wilson W. Wyatt, the homes-for-veterans bill will go to the house floor next week minus the price ceilings President Truman wants on old houses.

A fight on party lines is probable on that issue, but Wyatt last night got Republican and Democratic leaders to agree to another key portion of Mr. Truman's two-year program for 2,700,000 new homes.

This calls for $600,000,000 worth of federal subsidies—Wyatt calls them "premium payments"—to stimulate the output of scarce building materials.

Two Advantages
Wyatt contends the premium payments have two advantages over higher prices as a production spur.

They do not bring about higher prices for finished houses, and they can be reduced or eliminated more easily when no longer needed.

Leaders of the house banking committee agreed to present this among other jointly-sponsored amendments. The leaders thus reversed the committee's decision of last week in approving a watered-down version of the measure introduced by Rep. Patman (D. Tex.).

Republicans declined to give similar support to Mr. Truman's plans for ceilings on the nation's 40,000 existing dwellings.

The bill does contain a formula for ceilings on newly built houses based on a "reasonable" cost for land, labor and materials, but Republicans are expected to challenge this on the floor, also.

Besides the subsidies, the bill would provide preference for veterans in obtaining new homes and would continue for one year beyond June 30 the government's power to allocate scarce building materials.

Testament Changed Only To Aid Accuracy and Simplicity

BY REED SMITH
COLUMBUS, Feb. 12.—Protestants had assurance today from Dean Luther A. Weigle of Yale university that the 1946 revised standard version of the New Testament, changed prior translations "only where it was deemed necessary in the interest of accuracy, clarity, directness and simplicity."

Dr. Weigle, chairman of a group of scholars who worked eight years on the translation, said an inquirer already had asked "whether we have made Paul speak in the terms of the atomic era."

"To which the answer is an emphatic no," he told a quadrannual convention audience of the International Council of Religious Education which last night witnessed formal presentation of the new work.

"The history of the translation of the Bible into English is strewn with the wrecks of misguided efforts to put it into the phrasal phrases which were the current fashion," he said.

"We have sought to put the message of the New Testament in simple, enduring words that are worthy to stand in the great tradition of Tyndale (William Tyndale 1524-1536) and the King James version (1611)."

The first copy of an initial printing of 200,000 was received on behalf of the council by former Gov. Harold E. Stassen of Minnesota, president of the council, which represents 40 major protestant denominations in the U. S. and Canada.

A second specifically engraved copy went to Stassen himself, who in turn presented Dr. Weigle and others with similar New Testaments.

Dr. Weigle's committee of 31 scholars was commissioned by the council to prepare a new translation of the Bible based on old and newly discovered portions of the Scriptures with the aid of modern advances in the art of translation.

A revised Old Testament was promised by Dr. Weigle within four years.

At ceremonies today, Alfred H. Avery, business man of Malien, Mass., will be presented the Russell Colgate distinguished citation in recognition of outstanding service in the field of religious education. The award has been made only twice before—to James L. Kraft of the food concern bearing his name, and Mrs. Clifford S. Heinz of Pittsburgh, Pa.

POWER DISPUTE
MAY DARKEN ALL OF STEEL CITY

(By Associated Press)

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 12.—A strike of power company employees started in this industrial center today, but electrical current was still flowing several hours later to thousands of homes and buildings in the strike area in which 1,500,000 persons reside.

Street railway service was halted shortly before the strike began, but a spokesman for the struck Duquesne Light Co. said it was still supplying current on an emergency basis.

He expressed belief that, despite the strike, the company could continue to provide service to institutions and homes.

Steel mills and fabricating plants in the great industrial area around Pittsburgh, which ordinarily consume great quantities of electricity, were already closed by the general steel strike. The spokesman said all other industrial users were "co-operating 100 per cent."

City officials had feared the power shutdown would quickly affect power supplies to most of the inhabitants in the district.

Emergency Declared
Meanwhile the city remained in a state of confusion and Mayor David L. Lawrence declared a state of emergency.

Public schools were closed under plans announced in advance that they would not open if the strike were called. Most of the district colleges were closed.

There still was the threat that the strike could spread to home users, of whom there are 330,000 in the district.

A walkout of 3,400 employees of the light company began at 4 a. m. today to enforce demands for a wage increase.

The strike quickly reflected in downtown Pittsburgh.

Building superintendents ordered elevator service discontinued in the skyscraper Koppers and Gulf buildings—Pittsburgh's two tallest office structures. They feared a sudden suspension of power might trap passengers in the high-speed lifts.

Many business firms suspended operations and sent employees home.

A sign in the lobby of the Clark building warned visitors that "anyone entering does so at own risk."

An estimated one-half of the large business buildings and some hotels in Pittsburgh's downtown "Golden Triangle" business district were without heat as a result of the strike.

Power On Limited Basis
The city mobilized its entire police and fire fighting forces to cope with any emergency.

Electrical current continued to pass through power lines on a limited basis after the strike began, and officials of the light company informed Mayor David L. Lawrence it would be able to keep hospitals and some refrigerator plants going "for a while." Street car service was halted.

The union—the independent association of employees of the Duquesne Light Co. and affiliated companies—demands a 20 percent wage increase. Management has offered 7 1/2 per cent. Employees voted in favor of a strike, and a 30-day Turn to POWER DISPUTE, Page 8

Uhrichsville Man Heads
Lisbon Vitified Plant

LISBON, Feb. 12.—Appointment of William Ashton of Uhrichsville, as superintendent of the local plant of the American Vitified Products Co. was announced today. Ashton, former head of the local plant, succeeds Fred Overpeck recently transferred to the company's plant at Palmyra.

The local plant manufacturers of hot-tops for steel mills has been shut down because of the steel strike, and has also been affected by the strike of the Clay Workers union in the tri-state area, Ashton stated.

MAYOR ORDERS

Fuel Emergency Induced
By 9-Day Strike of Tugboat Operators

(By Associated Press)
NEW YORK, Feb. 12.—New York City was paralyzed today as a fuel emergency induced by the nine-day strike of 3,500 tugboat men caused an unprecedented business and amusement shutdown.

Police Commissioner Arthur W. Wallender said a disaster control board of 22 city department heads now was "the governing body of the city as much as if we were in military circumstances and we were being governed by martial law."

In a drastic proclamation, Mayor William O'Dwyer ordered:

All industrial, business and amusement activities closed.

Operation of only essential services deemed vital to the city's health and general welfare.

Explaining the board's operations, Wallender said, "we make recommendations to the mayor and he issues the edicts either by himself or through Commissioner (Ernest L. Stebbins) of the Health department."

Stores, Offices Closed
Persons entering the city were told by police that all stores and offices were closed.

The crippled city looked hopefully to a meeting today of tugboat operators to consider further a proposal to arbitrate the dispute.

Operators failed to reach a decision early today on whether to adopt this procedure.

The 3,500 members of the AFL International Longshoremen's association's United Marine division have agreed to arbitration.

Wallender declared the duration of the shutdown order "was indefinite" or "until the order or revocation is issued by the mayor or on our recommendations."

The basis of the O'Dwyer order was "the imminent and increasing peril to the public health of the people of New York City by reason of the lack of fuel."

Affected By Closing
Ordered shut down "irrespective of what type fuel is used and without regard to available supplies on hand," were:

Motion picture houses, theaters, night clubs, bars and grills, dance halls, bowling alleys, billiard parlors, all places of assembly and other places of amusement libraries and museums, all schools and other educational institutions, all commercial, business and industrial establishments. Patrolmen were posted to enforce this portion of the edict.

Churches may remain open, but they will not be allowed any fuel deliveries. Restaurants having bars will be permitted to serve food only.

Penalty for violating the order is a fine of $500 or one year in prison or both. Persons not fully violating the order, but found guilty, will be subject to a fine of $50, or 30 days in jail, or both.

Almost all Broadway closed tight shortly after midnight.

The few small restaurants which remained in operation were mobbed.

A large part of the European food crisis that the United States intends to ease originates in Germany and is likely to persist for many years. For the first time since the end of the war in Europe the impact of the catastrophe is being delivered in a more subtle way than the destruction of cities and fortifications.

The intent of the peace terms is to destroy an economy that has been supporting some 70,000,000 Germans, to replace it with a different kind of economy whose details are still vague, and to make certain that Germany never will be able to prepare for another war. The German people, still too confused to know what they intend to do, will have to work out a new economy based on light industries and agriculture, or mark time and hope the Allies will fall apart. In the meantime, they must be given a chance; that is why food relief is needed.

It is doubtful if most of us have digested the implications of what is in store for Germany under the terms agreed on at Potsdam. These terms constituted a decision never to give Germany another chance to wage war by making the German people dependent on their international neighbors for survival. We are having a preview of what that dependency may mean, unless the Germans can learn to feed themselves.

Where Does This Leave Ickes?

When President Truman questioned the reliability of his secretary of the interior's damaging testimony against Edwin W. Pauley, the future of Harold L. Ickes suddenly became as uncertain as the future of Mr. Pauley.

On next March 4, Mr. Ickes will have been secretary of the interior for 13 years. His long tenure has been a minor political miracle. He survived most of the time with only one visible means of political support—the confidence placed in him by the late Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Organization Democrats have gunned for him because he was a renegade Republican. Republicans have gunned for him because he was a New Dealer. With Mr. Roosevelt gone and President Truman going considerably out of his way to give him the rebuke direct in the Pauley affair, it looks as if Mr. Ickes had reached the end of his cabinet string. Unlike Henry A. Wallace, the only other original Roosevelt cabinet officer still remaining in the cabinet, though with a different portfolio, Mr. Ickes has no important political backing.

On the 15th of next month, Mr. Ickes will be 72 years old. The combination of his age, his long tenure in the cabinet and the accumulation of adverse political circumstances stimulates speculation on the probability there soon will be a new secretary of the interior.

Lincoln and Reconstruction

During the war years it was natural that on Lincoln's birthday we should look back through time and history to a war of 80 years before, and to the words and example of a man of acknowledged greatness who led an embattled nation to victory.

This year the analogy no longer holds good. We are in the midst of what, 80 years ago, was called reconstruction. Had Lincoln lived through that period of reconstruction, this nation's history would be a different and undoubtedly a happier one. But the task of returning the country to the ways and practices of peace was entrusted to the war president's successor, as it is today. Lincoln died at the dawn of peace; Roosevelt, almost on the eve of victory.

It would be comforting and instructing to know how Abraham Lincoln would have met problems similar to those which the United States faces now.

How would he have helped to answer the question of whether "We shall nobly save or meanly lose the last, best hope of earth" through a closer organization of the world's nations? How might he have aided in solving our industrial disputes quickly and fairly?

It is idle to speculate. But it is also excusable to turn to some of Lincoln's thoughts on labor and read them with present circumstances in mind. The particular thoughts quoted here were contained in some informal remarks which he made to a delegation of New York workmen in March of 1864.

They are not a formal economic and social philosophy. They may not be geared to today's thinking but they make interesting reading, nevertheless.

"The strongest bond of human sympathy, outside of the family relations," Lincoln said, "should be one uniting all working people of all nations, and tongues, and kindreds." (That would get him called a Communist today.)

"Nor should this lead to a war upon property or the owners of property. Property is the fruit of labor; property is desirable; it is a positive good in the world. That some should be rich shows that others may become rich, and hence is just encouragement to industry and enterprise." (That would get him called a conservative, or worse.)

"Let not him who is houseless pull down the house of another, but let him work diligently and build one for himself, thus by example assuring that his own should be safe from violence when built." (That might be called good sense and sound advice which is probably more apt today than it was in 1864.)

Housing Could Be A Success

Wilson S. Wyatt's housing program could be a success. The federal government's new housing expediter has moved fast since his appointment last Dec. 12.

He also has moved comprehensively, in the sense that he has worked out a program broad enough to cover what needs to be done. Expediter Wyatt is thinking about more than two and a half million new houses in two years—houses built by everybody who has skill, houses to be sold at prices that people who need houses can afford to pay. He is thinking about government stimulation of the building industry, but does not seem to be thinking about unloading all the industry's problems on government. Either expressed or implied in his blueprint are all the obvious needs of a real housing project on a national scale.

But a blueprint by itself means nothing. Expediter Wyatt has issued what amounts to a challenge to private enterprise. The blueprint and the government assistance it calls for will be the starting point for a demonstration of the ability of private enterprise to solve one of the country's toughest problems.

For instance, building trades unions must devise the means of obtaining the labor needed to give the public what it wants. Management and capital must work out details of construction and finance. The challenge is aimed at everybody concerned, from the architects who draw the plans to the laborer who digs drainage ditches.

There is a desperate need for taking off some of the hobbles that have checked building efficiency and spurred prices. The building industry, one of the half dozen most important in the nation, has an opportunity to get abreast of the times wherever it has lagged—and it has lagged in too many places for its own good. It doesn't just happen that there was a housing deficit even before the war; it was evidence of the building industry's own unsatisfactory condition.

What has been at other times only a problem for the industry now is a problem for the United States. The housing shortage is not merely an annoyance to be shrugged off, but a crisis to be met with forthright action. On all the ways in which the federal government has proposed to broaden its responsibility for the general welfare, there is least resistance to its efforts to stimulate better housing.

The only points of Housing Expediter Wyatt's program that lie in the area of controversy are those concerned with price control. If his program collapses at any particular point, it is most likely to be the goal of providing the bulk of the new housing at $6,000 or less while holding ceilings on the selling price and rental value of existing properties.

The Stars Say

For Wednesday, February 13.

TODAY, domestic, social, cultural or affectional contacts and engagements may have power to dissipate dark shadows or throw a beam of warming and comforting light into sinister or bewildering situations. Yet the latter may have to be met face to face, and with marshalling of all resources, talents and influences of those in power and high places.

Make important decisions on a basis of fact, move with deliberation and patience, rationalize and be not carried away by emotions, lures or glamour. Success and happiness may crown persistent and reasonable conduct.

Those whose birthday it is may encounter a year in white acute mentality, shrewd and concentrated activities, a rationalizing of peculiar or obstructing situations in which decisions must be made on a basis of fact and not on jumping to conclusions, or being swayed by duplicity, glamour, or the emotions.

Neither temper, rash or reckless shoving about, or working from false premises can assist to final productive and heartwarming crises. In the home, social, domestic and affectional relations, there is happiness, with staunch and liberal friendships having real value.

A child born on this day will have lofty intentions and ambitions, with efficiency and expansive ideas and ideals, but it may have to win its laurels through hard work, fortitude and working from a level of fact and reality.

GUARDING YOUR HEALTH

Effect of Climate On You

BY HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M.D.

FOR AGES, people have looked upon change of climate as a good method for treating a number of different diseases and there is scientific evidence to indicate that climatic conditions do have an effect on the health.

According to Dr. Clarence A. Mills of Cincinnati, the chief effect on climate comes from its control over the rate at which heat is lost from the body. For every unit of heat which is used in the body, three units are lost from the skin.

Cool Surroundings
As long as the surroundings are cool, this large amount of waste heat is gotten rid of easily and a person may maintain a high level of activity, but when heat loss becomes more difficult due to living in a tropical climate, the production of heat in the body must slow down and life go on at a more leisurely pace.

According to Dr. Mills, this slowing down strikes hardest at the tissues in the brain and may rob a person of his initiative and his ability to think clearly and also may cause slowing down of growth and development of the young. The people living in warmer climates have lowered vitality and a quieter type of life. Those in temperate and cooler climates are more vigorous but live a more exhausting life.

Effect On Disease
Dr. Mills believes that climate has an effect on such diseases as diabetes, toxic goitre, hardening of the arteries, heart failure and other conditions. Climate plays a part in disease in other ways. For example, storms bringing wide and frequent changes in air pressure and temperature seem to act as a factor in starting respiratory and rheumatic troubles.

PIN-WORMS

NOW CAN BE BEATEN

The miseries of Pin-Worms have been known for centuries; and millions of victims have sought a way to deal with this pest that lives inside the human body. Today, thanks to a special, medically recognized drug, a highly effective treatment has been made possible. This drug is the vital ingredient in P.W., the Pin-Worm tablets developed in the laboratories of Dr. D. Jayne & Son.

The small, easy-to-take P.W. tablets act in a special way to remove Pin-Worms. So don't suffer with the embarrassing rectal itch caused by this icky pest. Ask your druggist for JAYNE'S P-W and follow the directions. P-W means Pin-Worm relief!

Return of "Flapper Age",

Rising Divorce Rate Seen

COLUMBUS, Feb. 12.—Return of the "flapper age" and an increase in divorces were forecast today by Prof. Goodwin B. Watson of Columbia University teachers college.

The changes were among those predicted by Watson at a young peoples work section held in connection with the quadrennial convention of the International Council of Religious Education.

"The pace of modern living has so increased," he said, "that people must be retrained for living every ten years, because social and economic aspects of their lives are likely to change every ten years, whereas such changes formerly took place in a space of perhaps 200 years," he explained.

Army Enlistments Here Last Month Total 12

Regular army enlistments at the Salem station in the postoffice building totaled 12 last month, Sgt. Harvey J. Kennedy, recruiting agent for this area, said today.

This figure bettered the month's quota by two and represented a 20 per cent increase over the best other month.

"We expect continued increases as more and more young men become aware of the numerous educational advantages under the G. I. Bill of Rights," Sgt. Kennedy said.

Young men and their parents are urged to contact Sgt. Kennedy in the postoffice building to learn about government paid college educations under the G. I. bill which are open to regular army enlistees.

Reds' Mistake Cost Lives of 23 Yanks

FREMONT, Feb. 12. — Twenty-three American prisoners of Germany were killed by a Russian tank patrol Jan. 31, 1945, when the Reds mistook the Americans for a German assault unit, the wife of one of the victims said today she had been informed in a letter from a survivor.

Mrs. Victoria Zirn disclosed the letter which she received from John Blakeman of Springfield, Ill. Her husband, Richard, and Blakeman were enlisted men being marched toward Berlin when the shooting occurred near Kustrin, Poland, the letter said.

"We walked three miles (from Stalag III C at Kustrin) when someone started firing," Blakeman wrote. "A Russian patrol of three tanks and 50 men had circled in front of us."

The letter said 23 of the 80 Americans were killed before the Russians discovered their mistake and stopped. Blakeman, hit in the leg, was taken to a hospital by the Russians.

Later he moved into Japan as part of the Sixth army occupation forces, serving in the Osaka area on the island of Honshu in the capacity of sergeant.

Painter is married and has one child. He expects to move his family to Salem soon.

Lausche Turns Down Plea Of Mahoning Steelworkers

COLUMBUS, Feb. 12—Another request for legislation that would provide unemployment compensation for striking steel workers was submitted to Gov. Frank J. Lausche today by a delegation from the Mahoning County CIO council.

Gov. Lausche pointed out that he had turned down a previous request, also from Youngstown, to such legislation.

"I told them," he reported, "that I would consider their arguments and inform them directly whether their position did not fall within the reasoning and conclusions reached in my letter."

The letter, sent Feb. 2 to the United Steelworkers local in Youngstown, asserted that "government ought not in any way finance either management or labor in the furtherance of a strike."

Today's delegation was headed by Carl Beck, president of the Mahoning County CIO council, and included: Ed Humphrey, Phillip O'Toole, Thomas Hood, and Ted Destal, all of Youngstown; Paul Langley of Struthers and Al Shipka of Campbell.

PREPARED to face the FUTURE

The Boy Scout motto is "Be Prepared" and in this year of transition—it has deeper, fuller meaning than ever in its history. For in 1946, the Scouts of the world are preparing to face the future —of building a new world—one in which construction—and not destruction—is the goal. A future that knows only peaceful living, where every man is a brother to every other man regardless of his race, creed or color. It is the youth of today that will be the world leaders of tomorrow. So, in this 36th Anniversary of the Boy Scouts, we pay tribute to this great organization for the work it has done in the past—for the work it will do in the future as the Scouts of the World Build Together for peace and happiness.

Flour Rationing Plan Rejected By Anderson

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—Secretary of Agriculture Anderson today rejected a plea of the milling industry that voluntary rationing of white flour be substituted for government plans to put the nation on dark bread.

LET'S TAKE STOCK NOW

EVERYBODY WANTS GOODS.

Manufacturers want to make them for you.

Yet months after the war's end, you still find it difficult to get many of the things you want and should have.

So, isn't this the time for all of us to take stock . . . to learn a lesson . . . to find out, if we can, what will cure the troubles we are having and prevent their recurrence?

Let's look ahead and agree on a program that will insure the full production everybody agrees is the real answer to most of our problems.

Suppose we begin by taking a good look at three roadblocks to prosperity . . .

STRIKES

Whatever their justice or injustice, strikes paralyze production, force people to use up their savings, and result in losses that can never be made up.

PRICE CEILINGS

Full production isn't possible when industry suffers losses because of rising costs and frozen prices. Price ceilings limit production — goods just don't get made.

GOVERNMENT SPENDING

Continued huge government spending means continued high taxes. High taxes discourage production, hinder the creation of jobs, and leave you less to spend.

ISN'T THIS THE WAY?

The people, through Congress, can remove these roadblocks in the long-range interests of all . . .

By establishing a labor policy that will treat labor and management exactly alike, and above all be fair to the public;

By removing the shackles of price control on manufactured goods;

By cutting down on government spending now and balancing the Federal budget by the 1947 fiscal year at a level of income and outgo that taxpayers can stand.

Do you believe this program is in the public interest?

Your Representatives in Congress are the only ones that can put it into effect. Tell them how YOU feel about it.

Middletown Problem Heavy In Class "A" Race

Tony Martinelli's Stall Against Lincoln Wins Nod In Week's Scholastic Play

By HAROLD HARRISON
Ohio A.P. Sports Editor

COLUMBUS, Feb. 12.—The Middletown problem looked bigger than ever today to teams which aspire to grab off Ohio's 1946 Class "A" High school basketball championship.

The dopesters had figured the Middies might reach the end of their long string of regular season victories last week when they matched points with Newark's twice-beaten outfit. But the Wildcats went the way of all other Middletown foes and succumbed, 34 to 30, after being ahead, 26 to 25, going into the final quarter.

The night before, Middletown had walloped Portsmouth, 48 to 28.

An equally difficult problem, at least for teams in the North-eastern district, appeared to involve Canton Lehman. The Polar Bears, who reached the final state tournament in 1944, made their record read 16 won and one lost last week by facing Youngstown Rayen, 47 to 28, and Western Reserve academy, 50 to 26.

Both Middletown and Canton Lehman, however, will have a lot of work ahead of them when the district tournaments start in a couple of weeks. Playing in the same meet with Middletown will be unbeaten Hamilton Catholic and Dayton's "Big Seven" champion—Chamaine—with a flock of lesser lights.

Lehman's district road seemed even rockier, with Warren, Canton McKinley, Youngstown Rayen and undefeated Canton Township threatening to block the path to the state tournament. Warren, beaten only twice this season, also walloped Youngstown Rayen last week, 58 to 41.

The other Class "A" quintets with perfect records for the season are Cleveland Benedictine and Chillicothe. Benedictine, a 70 to 33 victor over Cleveland East last week, doesn't concern itself with state tournament competition.

Chillicothe faces some rugged tourney opposition from Marietta, which built up a fine record before slipping slightly in the last few weeks.

The East Liverpool sectional in the Eastern district also offers some bright prospects in a possible duel between East Liverpool and Toronto. East Liverpool won its 11th and 12th games in 15 starts last week by whipping Wellsville, 41 to 15, and Steubenville, 51 to 32. Toronto, which has been running wild in recent weeks, was an easy victor over Mingo Junction.

Up Salem way, however, they were singing the praises of Tony Martinelli. Salem had a 49 to 41 lead over Canton Lincoln with 50 seconds to go and Martinelli stalled away almost the entire time dribbling the ball back and forth in mid court while two Lincoln players chased him. By the time Lincoln finally broke it up there wasn't enough time to score.

Most of the Class "B" teams are settling down to county tournament competition this week with the undefeated list including such schools as Northridge, Waynesburg, New Knoxville, Strasburg, Copley, South Charleston and Amherst.

Northridge, which has the longest unbroken string of triumphs in the entire state—in both regular schedule and tournament play—finished off its regular program of games with an 81 to 19 walloping of Brookville. The Polar Bears, the 1945 Class "B" state champions, now have won 34 straight games.

One of their biggest threats against, however, probably will be Columbiana, which didn't even let the illness of two regulars stop it last week as it whipped Louisville, 40 to 37. The veteran Bill Newell and Forward Don Essenwein couldn't play as the Clippers won their 12th game against a single defeat by Northridge.

The tournament setup provides no chance for the Clippers and the Polar Bears to get together again before the final state tournament in March.

The Big guns individually last week were Jack Brock of Glendale and Chillicothe's Neil Johnston. Brock scored 39 points as Glendale laced Loveland, 55 to 29, and Johnston tallied 27 as Chillicothe beat Greenfield and 34 in the Cavaliers' triumph over Dover.

Barons In St. Louis

Cleveland's Barons will attempt to increase their third place Western division margin to seven points when they engage the tail end St. Louis Flyers at St. Louis in tonight's only scheduled American Hockey League contest.

Frank Murray who for years has been coaching at Virginia is a reformed professor of history and economics. Strangely enough, he never played football himself, not even on a school or scrub team.

CANTON LEHMAN RISES IN OHIO SCHOLASTIC RATINGS

Canton Lehman's Polar Bears—the same outfit which laced Salem, 65-29, at Canton earlier in the year—continued its rapid rise in state cage ratings this week, jumping into fourth place in Ohio thereby passing Class B's district powerhouse, Columbiana, now down to sixth spot in the Scholastic Sports Institute groupings released today.

Cochman Robinson's crack Stark county outfit is now ranked behind Cleveland Benedictine, Chillicothe and Middletown in the statewide comparisons, making them the favorites to capture the Northeastern Ohio regional crown at Youngstown next month.

Columbiana, rated 668 as compared to Canton's 682, is now ranked sixth in Ohio and third in Northern Ohio, according to Dick Dunkel, sports statistician who compiles the Scholastic Sports Institute point ratings.

Dayton Northridge, 1945 Class B champion, still ranks first in the state among the leading B contenders.

The Clippertown five is given second best billing in its class.

Interesting to note is the fact that Lehman, Warren, Canton Township and Canton McKinley, all scheduled to vie for sectional and regional honors at Youngstown next month, are ranked among the leading 10 teams in Northern Ohio with very little difference in point ratings.

Lehman has a 682 rating, Warren, fourth in Northern Ohio, rates 642, Canton Township, fifth, has 637 and McKinley is 10th with a 607 mark.

From these figures it would appear that the Youngstown tourney will be a terrific battle to determine which of those four leaders goes to the state finals in Toledo.

As is usually the case the difficult Northeastern Ohio section has four of the nine top teams in the state. The balance of the nine leaders, which will theoretically comprise the three other state finals, are divided among three sections.

Cleveland Benedictine, leading team in Ohio, does not compete in the state tournament.

East Liverpool's Potters, last week ranked 14th in the northern sector, are down to 17th place with a 579 record. The Potters clash with Canton McKinley and Warren this weekend. Warren rates a 633 point edge over the Potters while McKinley gets a 2.8 point nod according to Dunkel.

Both games are road affairs for East Liverpool, at Warren Friday and at McKinley Saturday.

Barons In St. Louis
Cleveland's Barons will attempt to increase their third place Western division margin to seven points when they engage the tail end St. Louis Flyers at St. Louis in tonight's only scheduled American Hockey League contest.

Frank Murray who for years has been coaching at Virginia is a reformed professor of history and economics. Strangely enough, he never played football himself, not even on a school or scrub team.

LISBON, Feb. 12.—Herald Monroe of Cleveland, director of the Christian education for Christian churches in Ohio, spoke last night to a rally of Columbiana county Christian Endeavor societies at the Christian church. A group of 110 people attended.

UNO SITE GROUP FAILS TO VOTE

(By Associated Press)

LONDON, Feb. 12.—The permanent headquarters committee adjourned today without taking a vote on an interim site for the United Nations after last ditch campaigns were launched for San Francisco and Atlantic City, N. J.

The committee voted last night by 22 to 17 that the permanent home of the UNO should be located in the region of Westchester county, N. Y., and Fairfield county, Conn.

The committee's action, taken after a lengthy debate, shifted the question of a permanent UNO home to the general assembly, where observers said debate probably would be resumed because of the closeness of the vote. A two-thirds vote is necessary for final approval.

The Australian delegate said he would "fight for San Francisco as interim headquarters" and that he would carry to the assembly his opposition to the New York-Connecticut area as permanent headquarters.

The site inspection committee, which originally recommended the latter region for the permanent home of the peace agency, proposed New York City as temporary headquarters. It also submitted reports on Atlantic City, N. J., and Boston.

France, supported by Iraq and Saudi Arabia and some Latin American delegates, led yesterday's opposition to a motion by the Netherlands to accept the site inspection committee's recommendation that the UNO make its permanent home in the New York-Connecticut area.

Atomic Energy In Peace Only, Dr. Meitner's Goal

(By Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—Dr. Lise Meitner, the Jewish physicist whose calculations gave the first hint of the tremendous power of atomic energy, said today she hoped "no occasion will again rise where it will be utilized in war."

Beyond expressing that "sincere hope," she said, "I have no intention to suggest how atomic energy should be controlled."

"A lasting peace is more desirable than the creation of weapons which might lead to the extermination of mankind," she said in a statement at the Catholic University of America, where she will open a course in nuclear physics.

Declaring that her work in Washington "will be wholly educational," the one-time member of the faculty of Kaiser Wilhelm Institute said:

"Today we may hope to achieve the peacetime application of atomic energy; a hope due to the marvelous development of atomic physics."

"I shall try to make intelligible the achievements of the last years by carefully explaining the fundamental concepts and methods of atomic physics."

Father Wounded By Son In Accidental Shooting

ALLIANCE, Feb. 12.—Thomas Barnett, 54, of 213 N. Franklin st., was treated at City hospital after he was shot accidentally in the left shoulder by his son, Thomas Barnett, Jr., 8, with a 22 rifle, police reported.

The boy was playing with the rifle upstairs, police said. The slug tore through the floor and hit Mr. Barnett, who was seated in the first floor living room.

ASSAY BOARD TESTS U. S. SILVER COINS
WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—To make sure Uncle Sam's silver money is strictly up to snuff, the 154th annual assay commission will put 198,321 coins worth $37,936.55 on "trial" tomorrow and Thursday.

These tests of random samples of the entire previous year's coinage have been going on every year since 1792. But never, in all that time, has a single bum coin turned up.

It's a good thing, too. The original act of 1792 provided a mint director could have his head chopped off if any of his coins were underweight or debased.

Now, the penalty is banishment from federal service.

Treasury men are positive President Truman's appointees—eight men and four women—won't find any bad coins this year, either, in their two-day session at the Philadelphia mint.

The commissioners aren't paid anything for their work. All they get is expense money, honor, and a three-inch medal each.

Those appointed to make this year's tests included Dr. M. Fortwaller, Van Wert, Ohio.

Says Hitler Didn't Plan All Crimes of Aggression

NUERNBERG, Feb. 12.—German Field Marshal Friedrich Von Paulus told the international military tribunal today that Germany had committed so many crimes of aggression that it would have been impossible for Adolf Hitler to conceive them all alone.

"Just how the government reached its decisions is unknown to me," the man the Russians captured at Stalingrad testified. "I can't imagine that one man alone could have done everything that was done. It's quite impossible."

The defense had been seeking to establish that Hitler alone, or with the aid of a small inner circle, was responsible for the military and political objectives of the Nazis.

cooling off period expired last midnight.

Pittsburgh, in the grip of a steel strike which has idled some 227,000 workers in the district, braced for the shutdown.

A drought was faced by some communities in the affected area, stretching 50 miles west from Pittsburgh along the Ohio river. At McKeesport, a city of about 60,000, it was doubted whether the water supply—which is facilitated by electric pumping stations—would last more than 18 hours after a stoppage of power.

Fears Pacts Hurt Small Businesses

(By Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—Senator Ball (R-Minn.) expressed fear today that many "small businesses—the little fellows—will be squeezed out" by nationwide wage agreements between industry and unions.

"That's one of the things that has me worried in the steel dispute," the Minnesota senator told members of the senate labor committee as he engaged in a running argument with Lee pressman general counsel for the Congress of Industrial Organizations.

Pressman, opposing the administration's fact finding bill and proposed substitutes, said there was no need for imposing equal obligations upon labor and management to bargain collectively.

Senator Ball disputed this, saying in numerous cases unions came in with demands or new contracts and threatened employers by saying "take this or else."

Ball said he "is worried" that when U. S. Steel and the CIO reach agreement to settle their strike that the union then will use these same wage items with the smaller independent steel companies.
